After these data are sorted and organized, line them up with the generations.

Contract: An agreement on sharing the workload, commitments by every team member, and consequences for failure to live up to your agreements. This contract is meant to help you work together as a team. If someone violates the contract – if they've signed it (which all team members have to) – then it will affect their grade. The entire team's grade depends on the success of the project and the contract.
