

PowerPoint Presentation Rubric

	Below Basic 1	Basic 2	Proficient 3	Exemplary 4	Score
Narration (Spoken Words)	More words on the slide than spoken. Narration doesn't tell much of the story. No real timeline.	Some reading from the slides. Narration better, but still not complete. Weak timeline.	Most information presented by the narration. Story complete. Good timeline.	Strong narration and storytelling. Information complete. Strong timeline.
Original and Borrowed Art	Original art sloppy. Borrowed art inappropriate or off-topic.	Original art adequate. Borrowed art appropriate and on-topic.	Original art done well. Borrowed art enhances story.	Original art impressive. Borrowed art perfect for storytelling.
Teamwork	Little evidence of teamwork. Narration not well shared. No strong leadership.	Evidence of teamwork. Narration mostly shared. Some evidence of shared leadership.	Good teamwork. Nice balance in narration duties. Many strong members on team.	Great evidence of teamwork. Narration shared equally. Everyone is a leader.
Overall Effectiveness of Presentation	Purpose of presentation unclear. No clear start or finish. No clear point of view or evidence of understanding.	Purpose of presentation clear but some parts vague. Effective timeline, most of story presented.	Purpose of presentation very clear. Strong timeline, complete story presented.	Purpose of presentation obvious to all. Strong timeline, complete story presented in entertaining way.
Production Values	Slides sloppy. No pattern for art placement. Style uneven, no text formatting scheme. Narration not connected to slides.	Slides done adequately, but without clear style or text formatting scheme. Narration loosely connected to slides.	Slides done with consistent style. Good slide composition and clear, stylish text formatting. Good connection between narration and slides.	Very stylish slide layout. Slide composition and text formatting very artfully done. Tight relationship between narration and slides.	